

Department of Spanish and Portuguese—May 2025

The Clarice Lispector Student Prize in Portuguese is awarded to a graduating Portuguese and Brazilian Studies major or minor for the best senior essay or project in Portuguese and Brazilian Studies. Submissions, one per student, may include papers, portfolios, or projects completed for courses or special studies during the last two semesters of study, excluding honors theses. Submissions must be electronically submitted but aren't required to be text-only. Hard copies will not be accepted. If submitting a portfolio or project, it must be scanned and submitted electronically in a form that is easy to access. Difficulty to access may disqualify a submission. Entries must include a cover sheet indicating for which course the submission was originally completed. Submissions are due by noon on Tuesday, May 6, 2025, and should be sent by email to David Osepowicz, dosepowi@smith.edu . Potential applicants should contact Marguerite Harrison and/or Simone Gugliotta with any questions. The department reserves the right to award the prize as deemed appropriate each year.

If interested in being considered for the prize, please complete the following information, attach this page to your submission, and send by noon on Tuesday, May 6, 2025. Please submit an electronic copy, sent as an attachment to dosepowi@smith.edu.

Your name:

Title of your project:

Course for which the submission was originally completed, please include the semester when it was given and the name of the instructor:

Description of the original assignment, from the course syllabus or any other material prepared by the instructor (copy and paste if needed):